

Canadian National Baptist Convention – a team approach

NATIONAL MINISTRIES

National Ministries include those teams that have national leadership and administrative support responsibilities. National Ministries include the following teams:

National Leadership Board
National Ministry Leader's Office
Associate Executive Director's Office
Annual Convention Teams
Communications Team
Church Administration Team
CNBC Business Office
Baptist Horizon
Web Page Team

The Baptist Horizon

The Baptist Horizon is the national news journal of the CNBC.

Debbie Shelton

Editor, The Baptist Horizon
dshelton@cnbc.ca

Canadian Baptist Builders

Canadian Baptist Builders exists to assist local congregations with their construction needs.

Ken Ponath

Team Leader Canadian Baptist Builders
kponath@cnbc.ca

Support

The convention office wants to help its churches in the area of administration and financial accountability. Tax laws, regulations and requirements are constantly being updated and changed. Our goal is to help pastors and churches understand and implement these requirements.

Joan Bruce

National Support Team Leader
jbruce@cnbc.ca

SHARE

The Share Team assists churches and individual Christians in becoming intentional communicators of the good news of Jesus. The team provides evangelism materials and training to help Christians share Christ more effectively. The team also develops partnerships between churches and leaders, enhancing evangelistic efforts across Canada. The Share team's desire is to cooperate with God's Spirit, in order that many in Canada will hear the gospel and find Jesus as Saviour.

Paul Johnson

National Share Team Leader
pjohnson@cnbc.ca

START

The CNBC Start Team has the same passion as the Apostle Paul: to move the gospel to places where those who were not told will see, and those who have not heard will understand. (Rom. 15:21) Why is our goal so important? This is why: Willow Lake is a small community of 50 First Nations people. To get to them you have to drive ten hours alongside the McKenzie River in the Northwest Territories. In one four-block area of high-rise apartments in downtown Vancouver, British Columbia, you will find 100,000 people. Although these two places are vastly different, to be sure, they have one thing in common. They are both without an evangelical church. Our team works through Church Starting Churches. These are CNBC churches who give themselves away to start healthy, reproducing and cooperating congregations everywhere there is no evangelical witness.

Dwight Huffman

National Start Team Leader
dhuffman@cnbc.ca

STRENGTHEN

The CNBC Strengthen Team advances God's kingdom by encouraging churches to strengthen one another. This happens most effectively through Church Strengtheners and Regional Church Strengthening Coordinators. We are asking God for a movement of His Spirit throughout our churches where cooperation and encouragement happens. Two are better than one, because they have a good return for their work: If one falls down, his friend can help him up. But pity the man who falls and has no one to help him up! ...A cord of three strands is not quickly broken. Ecclesiastes 4:9, 10,12b NIV

Bob Shelton

National Strengthen Team Leader
rshelton@cnbc.ca

SEND

The CNBC Send Team provides opportunities for individuals and churches to give themselves away through missions involvement. We assist churches as they discover, develop and deploy leaders in their own Jerusalems, Judeas, Samaria. . . and to the ends of the earth. If you or your church wants to know about missions opportunities in America or internationally go to: www.cnbc.ca/missions/opportunities

Salt Jones

National Send Team Leader
sjones@cnbc.ca