

God Led His People

Bible 5

Genesis 41:56 – 42:2, 46:1-7

Exodus 1:8-14, 13:21, ch. 3-14, 16, 20

Numbers 13-14, Joshua

The people had no food.
They were hungry.
The Jews went to Egypt to get food.
They stayed in Egypt.

They had many children.
The king did not like the Jews.
He forced them to work very hard.
They made bricks and built cities.

The Jews prayed to God.
They asked God to help.
God heard them.
God chose Moses to help them.

Moses was a shepherd.
He took care of sheep.
He saw a bush on fire.
He heard God say, "Moses, Moses."

Moses said, "Here I am."
God said, "I am the God of Abraham.
I heard my people cry.
I will help them.
They will leave Egypt.
They will go to Canaan.
You will lead them."

Moses said, "Not me. The king does not like me.
I can not talk well."

God said, "I am God. I will be with you.
I am stronger than the King.
I will tell you what to say."

Moses talked to the king.
He said, "Let my people go."
The king said, "NO!"
Six times the king said "No."
The seventh time, Moses and the Jews left.
The king and the army chased them.

The Jews came to a sea.
God divided the water.
The Jews walked across on dry land.
The king and the army drowned.

The Jews were safe.
God led them with a cloud in the daytime and fire in the nighttime.
God gave them bread and birds to eat.
God gave Moses 10 laws for the Jews.

God led them to Canaan.
They were afraid of the people and did not go into Canaan.
God said, "You will walk for 40 years and learn that I am God."
Forty years later, the people moved to Canaan.
Canaan was their new home.
