

God Has A Plan

Bible 6
The Book of Isaiah
Isaiah 7:14, 9:6-7

The Jews lived in Canaan.
They changed the name to Israel.
Jerusalem was the capital city.
Israel had peace and grew strong.
Other countries fought.
They wanted Israel's land.

A man named Isaiah lived in Jerusalem.
God chose Isaiah for a special job.
God told Isaiah to talk to the Jews.
Isaiah was a prophet.

Isaiah told the Jews "God is king."
Isaiah told them "There is only one God."
Isaiah told them "Stop disobeying God."
Isaiah told them "If you disobey him, God will punish you."

Isaiah told them God had a plan.
God will send a man.
This man will show God's love and forgiveness to everyone.
He will help the Jews tell everyone about God.

Isaiah said, "A child will be born to us.
He will be the King.
He will be called Wonderful Counselor,
Strong God, Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.
His nation will continue forever."
These words gave the Jews hope.

Isaiah said, "This is God's promise:
A single woman will have a son.
His name will be Immanuel.
Immanuel means "God is with us."
The Jews waited for the special baby.
